IVAN NIDOGOYAN, (very phonetic) calling L/D from Ithaca, New York to NIKOLAI G. REZNICHENKO. NID tells REZ that he wants to return to the homeland and that he has been in the US since 1951?. He apologizes for referring to REZNICHENKO as "Mister" instead of "Comrade". NID says that he has relatives in the USSR but hasn't heard a word from them in 20 years. NID indicates that he left the USSR during the World War and has recognized his mistake for many years.
NID expresses some fear of returning to the USSR but is told by REZ that no one will judge him if he returns. REZ at first tells NID that they will send him the necessary documents to fill out but interrupts NID when he attempts to give his address. REZ then says that it will be better if NID comes to the Consulate so that they can process the papers and have a talk with him. NID says that he now has his vacation and will come (No specific time mentioned) NID asks if the capitalist documents or the ones the Americans gave him will be necessary. REZ says he will not need them. (It is noted that NID when he contacted the SE for Consulate number indicated he understood almost no English.) Russian wbw
